

Everyone likes the pear tree

- 13 Look again at the story in the Pupil's Book, pages 34-35.
Why is the pear tree important? Match.

The children can from the top of the tree.
The woman likes to eat the pears.
The man wants the wood to make a fire.
The squirrels hide their nests in the tree.
The blackbirds have climb the tree.
The hawk can look for mice their beehive in the tree.
The bees have their nuts in the tree.

- 14 Correct the sentences.

Hawk: I can catch a cat.

I can catch a mouse.

Squirrel: We hide honey in the tree.

We hide nuts in the tree.

Blackbird: We will sing pretty songs in the winter.

We will sing pretty songs in the morning.

Bees: We will give you nuts.

We will give you honey.

Man and woman: We can chop down a new tree.

We can plant a new tree.

- 15 What would the owl say if it lived on the old pear tree? Write your idea.

Don't chop down the tree, I will

Verbotstafeln funktionieren ohne Worte.

Welchen Vorteil haben sie gegenüber geschriebenen Aussagen?

Wie müssen sie aussehen, dass alle sie verstehen?